“He [Allah]taught man that which he did not know” (Quraan: 96:5)

EDITORIAL

In the beginning of the new academic year the schools warmly welcomed their beloved students, rejoicing them and their efforts.

Now it's time to reap and pluck out the crop of what students have learned.

The exams came declaring the end of the academic year.

In the exam a person is either honored or dishonored.

And from the exams the student knows his level of understanding the subjects, and scales his seriousness during the study.

Unfortunately few students depend on cheating in the exam, even they encourage their friends to invent new methods of cheating.

And these students have forgotten what our beloved Prophet ﷺ said: "He who cheats us is none of us".

If a cheater succeeds in the exam then he must know that his success is temporary; it means he will not succeed in his upcoming life, because he will not overcome any challenge. He will fear from the upcoming big tasks and hurdles and will always try to take easier and illegal steps to reach his goal.

Thus study regularly and work hard permanently without tirelessness or boredom until you get highest mark.

So that your teachers and relatives will be proud of you, and you will become an example.

"Indeed, We have made that which is on the earth adornment for it that we may test them as to which of them is best in deed" (Quraan: 18:7)

Loving Allah and His Messenger

Almighty Allah has created the emotions in human beings, there are many kinds of emotions such as angry, happiness, sadness, love etc.

The human used to love things which is beneficial to him, a person loves to live and love to have relatives because it is beneficial to him.

A person loves who are kind to him, and indeed Allah is very kind to us, if we try to count Allah's bounties we could not enumerate them. They are countless.

And the relation between human and his Lord is based upon love, if Allah wanted to force us to obey him he can do it. But Allah wanted from us to love him with personal initiative.

Loving Allah and His Prophet ﷺ is inseparable, because loving Allah implies love for Mohammad ﷺ .

And we love the Prophet ﷺ because he was the best one in character, because he was the most sincere and kindest person among all human beings. We love him for what he brought us: the guidance and the true religion.

A person must love Allah and his messenger more than any thing in the world, Allah said in the Holy Quraan: "O Prophet say; "if your fathers, sons, brothers, wives, your relatives, the wealth you have obtained, the trade which you fear will decline, and the dwellings you love are

"And you love wealth with immense love" (Quraan:89:20)

more beloved to you than Allah or his Messenger ﷺ, and the struggle in his cause. Then wait until Allah brings his decision, and Allah does not guide the rebellions. (Quran :24)

This verse shows the honor of having sincere love for Allah and His Prophet ﷺ. The love that a believer has for Allah must be greater than anything. The love that a believer has for Allah's Messenger ﷺ should be more than any other created being, such as love for family, children, parents and others.

And the Prophet ﷺ said: "if anyone possesses three qualities, he will experience the sweetness of faith: Allah and His Messenger are dearer to him than anything else, to love someone only for Allah's sake, and to hate relapsing into unbelief as he would hate being thrown into fire" (Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim)

And our love to Allah should not be just claims, but our love to Allah should have evidence.

Allah has made signs for loving Allah exalted, when some unbelievers claimed the love of Allah, Allah revealed the verse "O Prophet say: "If you love Allah then follow me, Allah will love you and forgive your sins"(Quraan:)

Thus Loving Allah and his Messenger is one of the basic of faith and our love should be with evidence, not just with claims.

The Prophet said "Everyone will be with those whom he loves"
(Sahih Al-Bukhari: 6168)

Uthman Bin Affan رضي الله عنه

His name is Uthman Bin Affan Bin Abu Hafs Bin Umayya and his nickname was Abu Abdullah, and he was designated as Zun-Nurain, because he married two daughters of Prophet [Peace Be upon Him].

He was born in Taif before six years of elephant year in a rich family, neither he worshiped any idol nor he drank alcohol throughout his life.

He took care of the business of his father which he inherited, and went to Syria and Abyssinia, and associated other than Arabs, and become a powerfull man in Quraish.

The Prophet loved him because of his shyness, good characters, the best companionship, generosity, and his charity to help Muslims.

He became third Caliph of Muslims after the death of Umar Bin Al-Khattab  when his age was 68 years, and Muslims openly acknowledged him as sovereign in the Mosque of Prophet.

The most important works he did during his caliphate are: conquering Marv (a state in Turkmenistan), Turkey, Iskandariyyah (Alexandria), Armenia, Khorasan etc.

And during his caliphate the Prophet's Mosque was expanded in the year 30 (A.H).

He was the first who established Islamic Navy to protect Islamic costal area from the attacks of Byzantines.

And He gathered the Holy Quraan, which is known as Mus'haf Uthman.

Uthman bin Affan was the longest-serving of the Rightly-Guided Caliphs,

His duration of Caliphate was 12 years but one day less.

The Prophet said about Uthman when he spent three hundred camels in the path of Allah: "It does not matter what Uthman does after it" (Tirmidhi:3700)

I am Hamid, "Your friend"

In this issue I am going to tell you what I do when I eat.

Before eating I say:

“بِسْمِ اللَّهِ”

“In the name of Allah”

And if I forget it, then I say:

“بِسْمِ اللَّهِ فِي أَوَّلِهِ وَآخِرِهِ”

“In the name of Allah at the beginning and at the end of it”

And I say:

“اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيهِ وَأَطْعِمْنَا خَيْرًا مِنْهُ”

“O Allah, bless it for us, and feed us better than it”

And when I finished eating then I say:

“الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنِي هَذَا وَرَزَقَنِيهِ مِنْ غَيْرِ حَوْلٍ مِنِّي”
“وَلَقُوَّةٌ”

“Praise is to Allah Who has fed me this and provided it to me without any effort from me or power”

And I pray for those who prepared food for me:

“اللَّهُمَّ أَطْعِمْ مَنْ أَطْعَمَنِي وَاسْقِ مَنْ سَقَانِي”

“O Allah, feed him who fed me and give drink to him who provided me to drink”

“No messenger have We sent before you [Muhammad] who did not eat food and walked in the markets” (Quraan:25:20)

STORY AND A LESSON

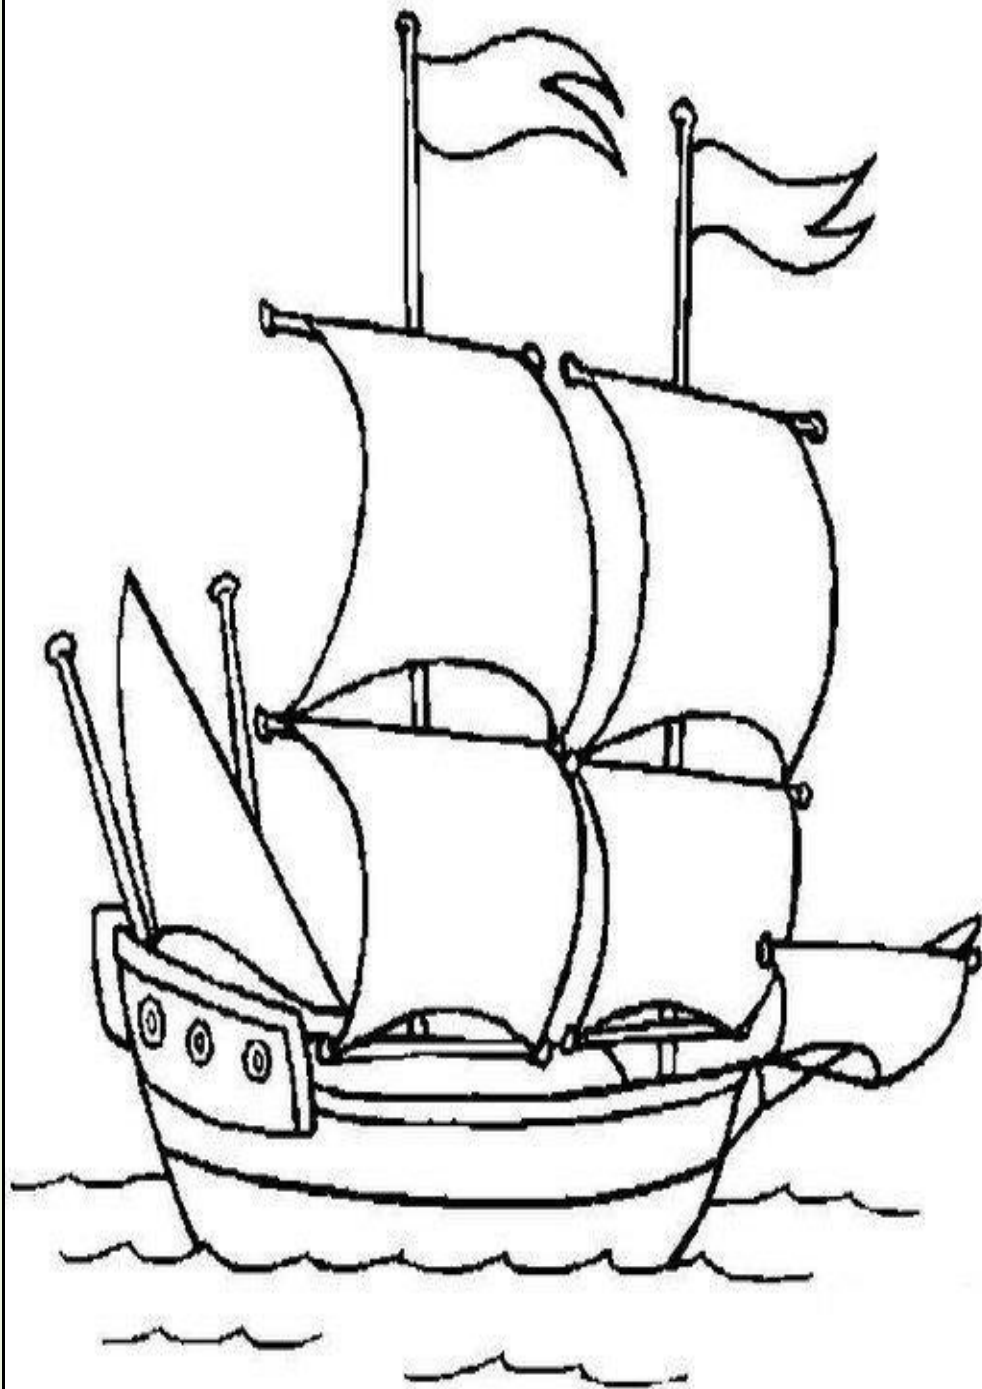

I learned the tradition (Sunnah) of our Prophet ﷺ and In Sha Allah I'll apply it in my life .

عن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال رسول الله ﷺ : "من كان يؤمن بالله واليوم الآخر فليحسن إلى جاره" متفق عليه

Abu Hurairah reported that Prophet ﷺ said: "He who believes in Allah and the Last Day should do good to his neighbor"
